Faculty Regalia

The ceremonial gowns worn in the academic procession speak by their shape and color of the historic dignity of intellectual pursuits. Their design derives from that of the gown of the clerics, who were the teachers and students at the first universities founded in the Middle Ages. Thus the gown is the descendant of the monk's robe; and the hood, a vestige of the cowl.

The Doctor's gown is ankle-length with wide lapels of velvet with full, bell-shaped sleeves marked by three bars or chevrons of velvet. The Master's gown, by contrast, lacks the lapels, chevrons, and has pointed sleeves, slit to the elbow.

The gown also tells the academic history of the scholar who wears it. The lining of the Hood (and occasionally, the gown itself) displays the colors of the university which granted the degree; whereas, the border of the hood and the chevrons announce the scholar's field of study. Dark blue, for example, stands for philosophy; white for letters; purple for law; red for theology or divinity; and green for medicine.

Heritage High School Alma Mater

Music by Dave Riley
Lyrics by Hollis Becker

From the banks of the Pa - to - mac, to the halls of Her - i - tage Pride. We will sing our pledge to the black and red, the Pride will be our guide. Oh we will de-fend her hon - nor with cour - age, loy - al - ty and might. We will al - ways have our Her - i - tage, our cul - tures to u - nite.

The image shows a musical score for the song 'Heritage High School Alma Mater'. It consists of four staves of music in a single system, written in a treble clef with a key signature of one flat (Bb) and a common time signature (C). The lyrics are printed below the notes. The first staff begins with the lyrics 'From the banks of the Pa - to - mac, to the halls of Her - i - tage'. The second staff continues with 'Pride. We will sing our pledge to the black and red, the Pride will be our'. The third staff continues with 'guide. Oh we will de-fend her hon - nor with cour - age, loy - al -'. The fourth and final staff concludes with 'ty and might. We will al - ways have our Her - i - tage, our cul - tures to u - nite.' The music features a mix of quarter, eighth, and half notes, with some rests and a final double bar line at the end of the fourth staff.
